

GOLD, MONEY AND POWER

„Banking establishments are more dangerous than standing armies”
Thomas Jefferson

Credit crisis, Depression, Deflation, Inflation – What does it all mean?

We will take a look at the history of money and how it has controlled people’s lives to this day. We will read articles, watch films and have discussions together.

The lessons will be in English and you are expected to have a good level of spoken English.

The course is worth 2 credits, but only motivated students will be successful.

Syllabus

Topics will include:

What is money?

Overview of the history of Gold, Money and Banking.

Money and War

Banking and Organised Crime

Stock Market Manipulation

Assassination of JFK – All about the money

If you want to take the course you MUST come for an interview before the start of the semester.

Dylan Jones